Considering the current pandemic caused by Covid-19 what role does health informatics now play in improving health outcomes and what future role do you see for health informatics?